

I object to relaxing the policy of limiting ownership of media. It's clear to me that Big Media, if allowed to own more newspaper, radio and TV sources in one market, will hinder the free exchange of information and do untold damage to democracy and information economies in the U.S.